

Game 5) Deuce & Done:

Singles points are played out between two players.

Just 2 points are played out, one to the deuce court and the next to the add court.

Players must win both points to win the game.

If the players split the points, no one gets the game.

This slight scoring alteration puts a bit more pressure on the players which is a good thing to do in practice.